Explanation of Account Ownership: Youth accounts are typically established in accordance with the Nebraska Uniform Transfer to Minors Act. In accordance with these provisions accounts are opened in the name of the child with one adult acting as the Custodian on the account. All money deposited into the account is the property of the child. However, the Custodian is the only person with the ability to transfer or withdraw funds from the account.

Instructions to Open an Account: Fill out this form and mail or hand deliver this form to the bank. After receiving the form a Personal Banker will contact you in the method you indicated above to confirm your intentions to open the account and establish the most convenient way to proceed.

New Customers: If you are not an existing customer of the bank please include a photocopy of your Driver's License or Government Issued Identification Card with this form.
